Moshe

Moshe was born on 30th June 1997 in Johannesburg, South Africa, to Papa Lentswe Mooketsane and Mama Pinah Mooketsane. He was the youngest of four Mooketsane brothers, and from the start, he lived with a joy and fullness of heart that touched everyone who knew him.

His schooling began at Tiny Tots Day Care Centre, followed by Thornhill Primary School for Standards 1 through 7. He then went on to St Stithians College in Johannesburg, but though his time there was brief, it was his deep longing for home—and for the farm—that called him back. That pull, rooted in his earliest memories, led him to complete his secondary education at Rainbow Secondary School in Gaborone.

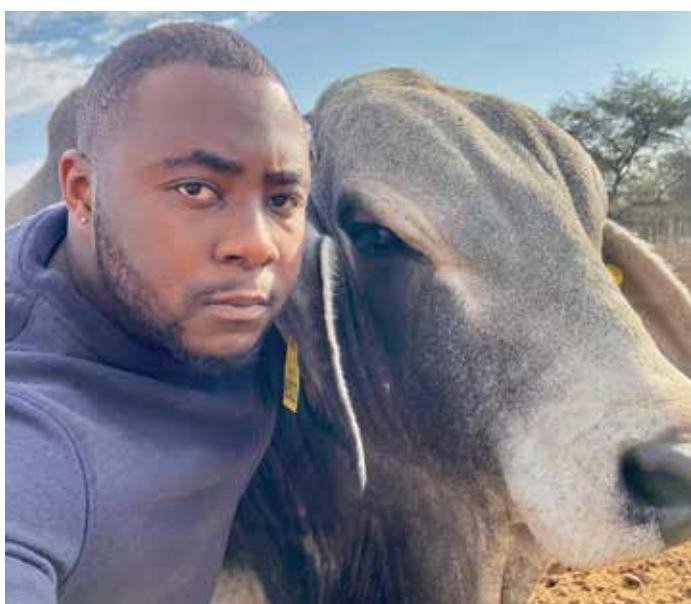

Moshe went on to graduate from Botswana Accountancy College in 2018 with a BA Honours in Business Entrepreneurship and Business Leadership. Yet his greatest classroom was always the open field. Farming ran in his veins and formed the very core of his character. From the age of five, he could be found alongside his father, Lentswe, and his eldest brother, Duke—often sleeping in his work boots the night before so he wouldn't be left behind when the cruiser was loaded before dawn. That steadfast dedication never left him.

As an entrepreneur, Moshe was a firm believer in building his own legacy. He brought together his passion for cattle farming and his business training with a clear vision: to grow and multiply the family farm into the future he and his father had long imagined. He also lent his hand to the smooth running of the family business, LM&P Dry Cleaners.

But Moshe was more than his work. He was a lover of life—jovial, kind-hearted, and always ready with a warm smile or a laugh. He treasured his friendships deeply and found joy in physical exercise, in movement, and in the vitality of the outdoors. His presence was grounding and uplifting in equal measure.

2025 brought Moshe his greatest joy yet: the arrival of his bouncy baby boy Bafilewe. In an instant, life as he knew it changed for the better. Becoming a father was the role he wore most proudly.

Moshe is survived by his father, Lentswe Mooketsane; his three brothers; two sisters-in-law; and four beloved nieces and nephews. His memory will live on in the red earth of the farm, in the laughter he left behind, and in the son who carries his spirit forward.

A son of the soil, a keeper of laughter, a builder of dreams. Rest easy Mosha Mosha, BOYZ II MEN
